

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

The Different Faces of Sexual Violence

A Side Event Organized to Accompany the Regional Conference “Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict: Delivering Justice for the Past, Preventing Abuses in the Future”

Wednesday, 28 May 2014
14:30-17:00

Hungarian Institute
Augusta Cesarca 10, Zagreb

14:30 – 14:40

Introduction:

Višnja Ljubičić – Ombudswoman for Gender Equality, Croatia

Welcome remarks

Predrag Matić - Minister of Veterans' Affairs, Croatia

Louisa Vinton - UNDP Resident Representative in Croatia and the FYR of Macedonia

14:40 – 16:20

Hungarian victims of wartime sexual violence: film screening

Introductory remarks

Gábor Iván – Hungarian Ambassador to Croatia

Film screening

Silenced Shame

A Film on Wartime Rape in Hungary in 1944-45

Hungary, 2013, directed by Fruzsina Skrabsky, 90 minutes

16:20 – 16:40

Reproductive rights in Ceaușescu's Romania: presentation

Introductory remarks

Florian Antohi – Deputy Head of Mission, Embassy of Romania in Croatia

Presentation

“The Impact of Ceaușescu's Pro-Natalist Policy on Women, 1966-89”

Alina Urs – Expert, Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes, Romania

16:40 – 17:00

Discussion

Višnja Ljubičić – Ombudswoman for Gender Equality, Croatia

Maja Mamula – Coordinator, Ženska Soba (Women's Room)

17:00 – 17:30 REFRESHMENTS